

I have just learned that the FAA has proposed a regulation to remove the right of Americans to engage a private airplane for pleasure rides. Ever since the Wright Brothers launched the Age of Flight, the right of licensed pilots to take members of the public for pleasure flights has been dearly cherished by all. As a pilot and owner of airplanes for a number of years, I have enjoyed giving my friends and family members rides. PLEASE DO NOT REMOVE THIS RIGHT!!!